A Debt of Gratitude

Many thanks to all who have so generously assisted in our celebration of Holy Week and the Pascal Triduum; our parish staff and assisting clergy, our sacristans, servers, lectors and other ministers of the Mass, those who decorated for the celebrations and especially our musicians, cantors and choir!

A special thanks to all who participated in the liturgy as well; the events of our Redemption were certainly well celebrated at Christ the King!

EASTER -

The Week of Weeks:

Seven weeks of seven days adds up to forty-nine days and then on the 50th day there is the feast of Pentecost. This is how Easter is celebrated, not as a single day, but rather as a season that only begins today. Why? Because the redemption that has been won for us by the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ is news that deserves to be repeated, further contemplated, more deeply believed each time we celebrate it.

Ironically, we as Catholics tend to be better at observing the forty days of Lent with prayer and sacrifice than we are celebrating the fifty days of Easter.

Would we consider making the effort to come to daily Mass for the season of Easter as we regularly do for the season of Lent?

In the least, we must consciously keep the character of Easter throughout the Fifty Days - lighting the Easter Candle each time we gather for the liturgy, and enthusiastically singing the joyful alleluias and hymns that hail wonder of the resurrection of Christ!

Happy Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord and happy season of Easter!

STILL ALICE: The first signs of trouble begin when Alice starts searching for words, gets lost on the Columbia University campus where she teaches and mislays things.

This DVD dramatizes the symptoms of Alzheimer's disease. Moreover it shows how when a serious illness strikes one family member, it affects them all.

A Sony Pictures Classics starring Academy Award Winner for Best Actress, Julianne Moore.

THE RESCUER: Tales from Bledlow Ridge. Rachel, an idealistic teen, has a keen sense of justice and a passion to protect the environment. But her passionate nature leads her astray when she disregards her father's wishes and embarks on an ill-advised mission. With realistic dialog and credible situations, it's a DVD to be enjoyed by teens and adults alike.

OFFICER'S MEETING

FULL COUNCIL MEETING
May 8 • 7:15 PM

OK WHY DO WE NEED TO RECRUIT?
The Order's tomorrow depends on recruitment today.

Guided by the principles of charity, unity, and fraternity, the Knights of Columbus is committed to making certain that no person ever goes without food, shelter, warm clothing and financial security, and that aid is always available for widows and children in our local communities.

But, the Order can't do this alone. It continually needs new members to help strengthen our parish and communities. And we must let qualifying Catholic men know, 18 years and older, that the ORDER needs them more than ever.

The Knights of Columbus of Council 13388 has open enrollment going on now. We invite all those Knights that have been away for awhile to come back. If you have just moved here we can help you with your transfer.

Council 13388 welcomes our new member Brother Thomas Capizzi, who transferred from council 2525 in Hyannis.

The Knights wish everyone a blessed EASTER and we ask you to please pray the Rosary to honor the unborn children and their Mothers.
