Prayerful good wishes are extended to all Fathers, Grandfathers, God-fathers, Step Fathers, and Second Fathers for a day of well deserved appreciation and honor.

Fr. Daniel Nunes:

As a newly ordained priest, Fr. Nunes, who as a seminarian served a pastoral year among us in his final phase of formation, will celebrate the 10:30 AM Mass on next Sunday, June 24th, and then impart First Priestly Blessings in our Parish Hall after the Mass, where coffee and light refreshments will be served.

Mark the Date and Time: Tuesday, July 17 at 7 PM:

Fr. Benedict Kiely who formed the organizational NASAREAN to help persecuted Christians, especially those in Syria and Iraq, will be here as our Summer Speaker to tell us about his work and the ongoing difficulties for our brothers and sisters in the faith in the troubled spots of the Middle East.

Fr. Kiely, originally from Great Britain, and now a priest of the Diocese of Vermont, has been allowed to devote his energies full time to this work, and has made several visits to these areas where Christian lives are ever at risk. Any who have heard Fr. Kiely speak, find his presentation informative and inspirational.

Catholic Charities Appeal:

Don't miss the opportunity to be a vital part of something bigger than ourselves and greater even than our own parish, which is the local church that is the Diocese of Fall River, shepherded by Bishop Edgar da Cunha.

We are invited to be "on board" in a most active way by being among those who keep the good works of this local church going through our annual contributions to the Catholic Charities Appeal.

The Appeal will close on Wednesday, June 27th, so please use the materials mailed to you or those available at the entrances to the church to make a pledge or contribution while the opportunity to do so is still available. It is our goal, and truly it shouldn't be an unrealistic one, that nearly every household of our community of faith would be willing to give something to assist our bishop in carrying out the good works for which all of us get credit as the Catholic people of the Diocese of Fall River.

For the Early Risers:

A 7:00 AM Mass will be celebrated on Sunday mornings during the summer beginning on July 1st and concluding on September 2. The Mass will be celebrated in the St. Jude Chapel unless attendance requires that it be moved to the Main Church.

A Week of Sadness, But Pride and Gratitude As Well:

The unexpected death of Deacon Gregory Beckel has left a great void in the ranks of our clergy here at Christ the King, and sadness that will be with many in our community of faith for quite some time as we sense his absence at each new liturgy and parish activity at which we would be accustomed to seeing him.

Yet, at the same time, even in sadness, I cannot help but be proud of this parish, its clergy, seminarians, staff, ushers, sacristans, choir members, cantors, musicians, liturgical ministers, members of organizations and parishioners in general, who even in their own sorrow, rallied to provide the most prayerful and dignified farewell to Deacon Greg that we could create in accord with the customs of the church.

Special gratitude to Mary Becker, Chris Hughes, Judy Warren, Dottie Hiltz, Donny Nolan and Mary Anne Crowley for the extra miles to which they went to help to see that all things were ready in a rather short period of time.

Thanks also to all who called to ask what they could do to help and for those who provided baked goods for Thursday in the Rectory and Friday in the Hall.

I am also particularly grateful to those who volunteered to keep prayerful watch during the hours of the night that the body of Deacon Greg lay in state at the church.

I am sure that all of these generous efforts worked together to create a great source of comfort to Deacon Greg's wife Beth, and her children and grandchildren, as well as his brothers and sisters. So, even in sadness, I was reminded how wonderful is the parish of Christ the King, and what a privilege it is to serve among you as pastor.

This pride and gratitude was also reenforced at the Librarians Luncheon, the Catholic Women's Club Scholarship Brunch, and the Thrift Shop Volunteer Lunch, which I also attended over the last week, and at which I am reminded of the generosity of so many people dedicated to the many activities of our parish.

Special thanks go out to Librarian, Joanna Pitocchelli; CWC President, Terry Sweatman; and Thrift Shop Director, Mary Daly; and all who cooperate with them and whose volunteer works are often more like full-time jobs!

Then, to see so many parishioners who after the bus failed to show up last Saturday, would car pool to Fall River to be present for the ordination of Fr. Daniel Nunes, and some who even took the trip to Fall River again on Sunday for the First Mass, was as much a joy to me as pastor, as it was to the newly ordained priest and his family.

Add to all of this, all the other volunteers in catechetical ministries, and charitable organizations and activities, and it understandable why even I, who have no children, will have a most meaningful Father's Day as I appreciate how blessed I am to be the spiritual father of this unique and wonderful family which is the Parish of Christ the King.

Become an Altar Server?

Any child that has received First Communion (through high school age) is invited to become an altar server. This is a great way for our young parishioners to get involved in the life of the parish, and to gain a greater understanding of the liturgy!

Training will be provided. Anybody interested in being trained as an altar server should call the Parish Office at 508-477-7700 to add their name to the list.

Chris Hughes our Parish Seminarian, will contact you about training and installation dates.
