Fourth Sunday of

EVENING MASSES DURING LENT: On Tuesday and Thursday evenings, Mass will be celebrated at 5:30 PM for those who would like to participate in weekday Masses but whose schedules prevent them from doing so in the morning.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS: Fridays at 4 PM in the St. Jude Chapel.

SOMETHING TO CELEBRATE: Arriving now at the Fourth Sunday in Lent, we are invited to celebrate Laetare Sunday, a day to rejoice that our Lenten fasting and self-denial is quickly approaching its end. So, as we celebrate this day, it is a time to redouble our efforts to insure that those who should benefit from our sacrifices come Holy Thursday will do so!

POOR MAN'S SUPPER: FRIDAY, APRIL 12, following the Stations at 5PM. Join in solidarity with those who have less. Free Will Offering accepted to benefit our designated Lenten Charities!

FUTURE PILGRIMAGES: The pilgrimage to Eastern Europe with the primary aim being to attend the PASSION PLAY OF OBERAMERGAU - will take place from September in 2020 but it is important to sign up now as tickets to the Passion Play, only performed every ten years, are very limited and must be reserved well in advance; brochures and registration forms are available in the office.

If there is sufficient interest, a pilgrimage to the HOLY LAND will be organized for next February or the following year before the start of Lent. As 25 participants would be necessary, kindly indicate your interest by informing the parish office.

LENTEN SCHEDULE AT AREA PARISHES: Please note: there is an error in our published information. There are NO Stations of the Cross scheduled on Fridays at St. Anthony's Parish. However, "Chowder and Chat" is scheduled at 11:30 AM on Fridays during Lent.

What's Missing?

Do you have questions about your Catholic faith?

Do you know why you are Catholic? RELIGION AND FAITH may at times be confusing. Of course, God is mystery, and not all questions have an answer. However, the idea is to explore that area between black and white, to find the spiritual rainbow who is our Lord Jesus Christ. Please join us for discussion and prayer. This process is for those who want to bridge the gaps in their journey of faith.

All are welcome.
