The Pastor's Pen

THE WEEKLY COLUMN BY FR. EDWARD HEALEY

Man Proposes But God Disposes:

I thought that I would be waking up in Naples, Florida this morning, Tuesday, April 9th, and remaining there through the 18th as a post-Lent-Holy Week time of refreshment and relaxation before the busy month of May gets into full swing. However, last Saturday after the 4 PM Mass, I took a call that I have long dreaded receiving telling me that our former pastor and my mentor and friend, Monsignor Tosti, had passed away! I had received a call earlier before Confessions and Mass informing me that he had been admitted to Charlton Hospital in Fall River with pneumonia for a man of his age and underlying breathing challenges that are always serious, but he had certainly been down that same path before and always pulled through! This was the time though that he and that in itself has its shocking and stinging effect. There could be no question for even a second that I would have to cancel my plans as I have long known and happily accepted that I would have the sad duty of assisting his beloved cousin Carol in assuring that Monsignor's final arrangements are carried out according to his wishes. That is something that those who aren't part of the fraternity of the priesthood may find difficult to

RESPECT LIFE INTERCESSIONS

May the life of every human person, from conception to natural death, be protected in our laws and cherished in our hearts;

We pray to the Lord:

For solidarity and peace in our global family: that we may work together to protect the lives of those who are most vulnerable;

We pray to the Lord:

For all who are forgotten or cast off, especially the unborn, the poor, the sick, and the aged: may they be treated according to the dignity with which God created them.

We pray to the Lord:

understand, but we who accept a celibate and thus childless life form spiritual bonds that are different but nonetheless often similar to those of blood with one another. Thus when an older priest takes you under his wing and lovingly supports you encourages you in your priesthood, mentors you through your challenges, and corrects you in your mistakes, you have a loyalty to him, and most especially a duty to him, based in fraternal affection and on gratitude, that compels you to assure in the end that he will be properly laid to rest. So I will have to rely on divine intervention and inspiration to even hope to do justice to a giant of a man and a priest such as Monsignor Tosti, but I consider it more of a great privilege than a daunting challenge. Yet please do not feel sorry for me that my plans for rest in Florida were interrupted because in hindsight I can see God's hand in this; first that I wasn't already there and thus didn't need to fly back, and above all, that my calendar was already cleared so that I would have the time needed to prepare as well as I can to fulfill my duty to the best of my ability. I truly feel that this is the very least that I owe to a man and a priest who has done so much for me! In all of this, I am learning once again that God knows better than me, and in his providence, he is taking a situation that would be sad and difficult whenever it occurred and by his timing, not mine, he is easing some of the burden of it to the extent that is possible! So I can say with Ecclesiastes - God makes everything appropriate to its time, and with Job, I can concur, "The Lord gives and the Lord takes, blessed be the Lord!"

The Real Presence: Do you want to learn more about the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist? Can you answer questions about why Catholics believe Christ is present in the Eucharist? Or how that belief helps us to see the Lord in others? Does your faith help you to believe? We invite you to join fellow parishioners to continue the lifelong journey of growing in your love and desire for God, recognizing Him in both the Blessed Sacrament and in the presence of your neighbors. Meetings will be held in small groups at each other's homes to foster our ability to become better acquainted with others in our parish. The books we will be using will soon be available and it is hoped that the gatherings can start at the beginning of May. ALL ARE INVITED! ALL ARE WELCOME! Express your interest by calling Jeane at 508-360-5570 with what times are convenient for you.

Teen and Family Speaker- Jason Evert- CTK -April 22nd, 6 PM -9 PM: Along with Our Lady of Victory Parish we will cohost Jason Evert a well-known and effective speaker for two talks on difficult subjects which will be handled with down-to-earth practicality and even humor! The topics are Chastity and Gender Identity and are of interest to parents and teens, as well as other adults. These presentations will certainly make the delicate and often difficult conversations around these important topics, which should then continue at home much easier to handle! The program will conclude with praise and worship, Adoration, and the opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Jason Evert is a best-selling author of more than ten books including THEOLOGY OF THE BODY FOR TEENS and HOW TO FIND YOUR SOULMATE WITHOUT LOSING YOUR SOUL. The cost of the tickets is $25 each and these may be obtained by visiting: Chastity.com/purified. For more information, email Billb@olvparish.org Christ the King Parishioners will be reimbursed $10 per ticket by the parish, as this is a program that
