

Easter Traditions in Boston~Friday April 24, 2026, 1:00 PM

Author Anthony M. Sammarco explores the rich history and local customs of celebrating Easter, a solemn religious holy day preceded by forty days of Lent and Holy Week.

Traditions have long included egg decorating, hot cross buns, new clothes, chocolate bunnies, Easter bonnets, the Easter Bunny, the iconic Easter Parade and so much more! Join us as Mr. Sammarco guides us through the evolution of so many traditions with which we became familiar. Presentation will be in the Parish Hall and light refreshments will be served.

+++++

To register please complete this form and mail by Monday, April 20, to Gail Reilly, P.O. Box 280, Cotuit, MA 02635 or return to the Parish Office.

Name _____ Phone _____
_____

Number Attending _____

We hope you will plan to join us!

