THE WEEKLY COLUMN BY FR. EDWARD HEALEY

A Consecrated Nation: On Thursday, June 11th, the vigil of the annual feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the Bishops of the United States, during Mass at their annual conference, formally consecrated our nation to the Sacred Heart as we observe the 250th Anniversary of its founding. Placed in the care of the all-loving heart of Jesus Christ behooves us to pray regularly for the Lord's mercy upon us for our national sins against that love, including the unjust wars that we have more recently waged and other assaults on the dignity of human life that have been permitted through abortion on demand, capital punishment, and euthanasia in our country. May our nation be forgiven for the past and present injustices that result from trends of prejudice, racism, and discrimination that have not yet been completely eradicated from our national life. May the present persecution cease of those who live and work among us peacefully and productively, yet who do not yet possess the right documents. May those immigrants incarcerated without criminal cause be released and reunited with their families, as just pathways to citizenship are reopened. May the stranger seeking a better life here, as were our own forebears, again find the welcome our nation once promised, and the Lord himself commands! Let us pray for a cleansing of our American culture from all forms of selfishness, greed, rivalry, immodesty, impurity, vulgarity, indifference, hatred, division, and every form of violence so that the prayerful wish expressed in our pledge of allegiance that we be united as one nation under God will finally be a hope fulfilled! Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, to you we entrust the country we love, its leadership and its inhabitants, transform us by your unconditional, self-sacrificing love into a nation ever more kind and peaceful and thus ever pleasing in your sight!

Salt and Light: The gospel readings this past week have been taken from St. Matthew's account of the Sermon on the Mount, in which Jesus teaches the Beatitudes as the rules of the Kingdom he came to announce and inaugurate, and asks us to live them not only individually but collectively, that we as the church may be salt and light in the world. The implications are that Christ's disciples should not only improve their own lives but those of others as well! Surely we, as a parish, are trying to accomplish that on a local level as we must through our contributions to the Matthew 25 Fund, which supports the charitable good works of the parish for the

WHAT'S MISSING?

Do you have questions about your Catholic faith
Do you know why you are Catholic?
Religion and faith may at times be confusing.
Of course, God is mystery, and not all questions have an answer.

However, the idea is to explore that area between black and white, to find the spiritual rainbow who is our Lord, Jesus Christ.
Please join us for discussion and prayer.

This process is for those who want to bridge the gaps in their journey of faith.

Will resume in the Fall.

relief of the poorer people of the wider Mashpee community. We do this on a somewhat wider but still local basis as we support the apostolates and ministries of our diocese here in Southeastern Massachusetts through our contributions to the annual Catholic Appeal. Yet our sights must always be set even further, and that is the case as through our annual almsgiving in the Season of Lent, we support the global outreach of Catholic Relief Services, and more particularly, we support the efforts of Food for the Poor to see that people of rural Guatemala are more properly housed and enabled to sustain themselves through agricultural support programs. Most recently, Dr. Nicholas Matas, who is the liaison for our parish with Food for the Poor, visited Suchitepequez, the village where the proceeds from our Lenten almsgiving over the past two years have been used to help improve life for very impoverished people there. Our contributions, along with those of a parish in North Carolina, have thus far helped construct 32 solid homes of cinder-block with cement floors to replace makeshift dwellings with dirt floors built of tree trunks, scrap metal, and old plastic tarps, which offered little protection from scorching heat, torrential rains, or scorpions, snakes, and other animals.

Surely, like salt, we have brought a new flavor to the lives of those now much more comfortably and safely housed, and in the process, we have, by our generosity, shone the light of Christ's love to the people there. We will not be finished until everyone in that village is able to enjoy such a home. So let us take heart that although we as one community of faith cannot save the world yet, we are making a huge difference, not only here in the Mashpee area but also for another little rural village in Central America, just as we did previously for El Tablon!

National Eucharistic Pilgrimage – One Nation Under God: The Cabrini Route of the National Eucharistic Procession, organized as a Catholic element of the 250th Anniversary of the United States' founding, will pass through Fall River on June 30th. Information on participating, whether by walking or attending a noon Mass at St. Mary's Cathedral, is available on the Diocesan website or church flyers. Join us in person or in spirit as we demonstrate faith and its influence for the greater good in our nation.
