Father's Day: On this weekend we join with families throughout the nation as we honor our fathers, grandfathers, step fathers, god fathers and second fathers, For us as people of faith we best express our love and gratitude through prayer and so we will offer all the Masses on this Sunday for all fathers, living or deceased, and impart a special blessing to the fathers who are present with us at Mass this weekend.

The Emiliani Project: This weekend, Charles "Chuck" Navarette, a deacon from Oceanside, California, will be visiting us with his wife, Rebecca, and their two children. Rebecca is the daughter of our parishioners, Rick and Lynn Provencher, and the sister of Pete Provencher and his wife, Sarah, who coordinates our Youth Ministry. Deacon Chuck will be preaching at all the Masses this weekend and introducing us to the Emiliani Project, of which he is a co-founder. This Project is named in honor of St Gerolamo (Jerome) Emiliani, an Italian layman of the Veneto region of Italy who was born in 1486 and who died in 1537 after contracting the plague while trying to help care for its from the Veneto region of Italy who was born in 1486 and died in 1537 after contracting the plague while trying to help care for other victims. This saint, who was an impious youth, had a conversion experience while serving in the military as a young man and being freed after being held captive, crediting his release to the intercession of the Mother of God. Thereafter, Jerome devoted his life to God and to good works on behalf of others in need, establishing orphanages and hospitals, and even a fraternity of secular priests, although it is uncertain whether he himself was ever ordained. St Jerome Emiliani is especially venerated for his care of poor, neglected, or orphaned children and so has officially been named their patron saint by the Church. With this as background, Deacon Chuck will inform us of this project, which is named in honor of St Jerome Emiliani because it seeks to house, feed, and educate poor and vulnerable children in the region of Medellin, Colombia. Certainly, it is appropriate as we celebrate Father's Day to remember those children, many of whom lack a loving father's presence in their lives, to learn what is being done to help them and consider playing a part in that noble effort.

WHAT'S MISSING?

Do you have questions about your Catholic faith
Do you know why you are Catholic?
Religion and faith may at times be confusing.
Of course, God is mystery, and not all questions have an answer.

However, the idea is to explore that area between black and white, to find the spiritual rainbow who is our Lord, Jesus Christ.
Please join us for discussion and prayer.

This process is for those who want to bridge
the gaps in their journey of faith.

Will resume in the Fall.

Individual or teams welcome: List names of team members if applicable.

On Prayer for Vocations: We must face the difficult truth that we ourselves are at risk of becoming fatherless, in the sense that unless present trends soon turn around, it may not be too long before we do not have a sufficient number of spiritual fathers to serve our parishes and minister the sacraments as priests. So on this Father's Day, let us also pray for our spiritual fathers as well, and each of us deepen our commitment to pray for and promote vocations to the priesthood!

The Time Has Come: Beginning on the 1st of May, the annual Catholic Appeal opened, and now the official close of that appeal on the 30th of June is drawing near. Thank you to the households of the parish who have already contributed, and those that have not yet done so are asked to make their pledge or donation during the coming week. The Catholic faith that we profess is radically communal in its creed and practice, calling us to be in solidarity with our fellow believers in faith and charity under the authority and with the spiritual guidance of our bishop. Indeed, it is our bishop appointed by the successor of St Peter, who provides the essential link that makes us part of the worldwide Catholic Church. Thus, the 'Local Church' to which we belong cannot be limited in our understanding simply to our parish alone but must actually encompass the whole Diocese of Fall River! In our name as its members, the Diocese carries out charitable good works and sponsors apostolates, ministries, and programs that put our Catholic faith into action on a broader scale than any one parish can ever do on its own. So, Bishop daCunha asks for our help each year in funding these many good works. Let us respond to his request with loving and generous hearts!

Let Us Say Thank You: For better than three decades, Dwight Giddings has been managing the care and maintenance of the buildings and grounds of our parish. While appearing younger than his age, he is past that point at which most people retire, and so will be stepping down from his long-held full-time position as plant manager on the 30th of June. As he does, Dwight leaves the parish plant with its many challenges and its extensive grounds in very good shape thanks to his conscientious care and dedication over these many years. So let us express our gratitude to Dwight for his good stewardship of what our founding pastor, Monsignor Tosti, and our original members have bequeathed to us: a beautiful house of the church in which to worship and adequate facilities in which our programs and activities may take place and to which we may generously welcome outside groups to enjoy as well. Thank you, Dwight, for all your many efforts to maintain these buildings and grounds in as good a shape or better than we have received them; as a community of faith, we will be ever grateful to you!
